the pudding is in the proof Persimmon pudding is a traditional American dessert made with persimmons. Although American, persimmon pudding is similar to traditional English dessert puddings, such as Christmas pudding (raisin or fig) or quince pudding. This style of pudding is generally either steamed or cooked in an oven with a water bath (also called a bain-marie). These methods of cooking ensure the pudding remains moist ...

the pudding is in the proof Red pudding is a meat dish served mainly at chip shops in some areas of Scotland as an alternative to fish (see fish and chips). Red pudding is associated with the east of Scotland in general and particularly with Fife, though even in this area it has become less common in recent years. Broadly similar to the English saveloy, its main ingredients are beef, pork, pork rind or bacon, suet, rusk ...
